The image shows a musical staff with a bass clef on the left. The staff consists of five horizontal lines. There are four groups of notes, each group containing five circles. The circles are arranged in a descending staircase pattern from left to right. The first group has circles on the top line, the first space, the second line, the second space, and the third line. The second group has circles on the second line, the second space, the third line, the third space, and the fourth line. The third group has circles on the third line, the third space, the fourth line, the fourth space, and the fifth line. The fourth group has circles on the fourth line, the fourth space, the fifth line, and a line below the staff. Each circle is positioned between the lines of the staff.
